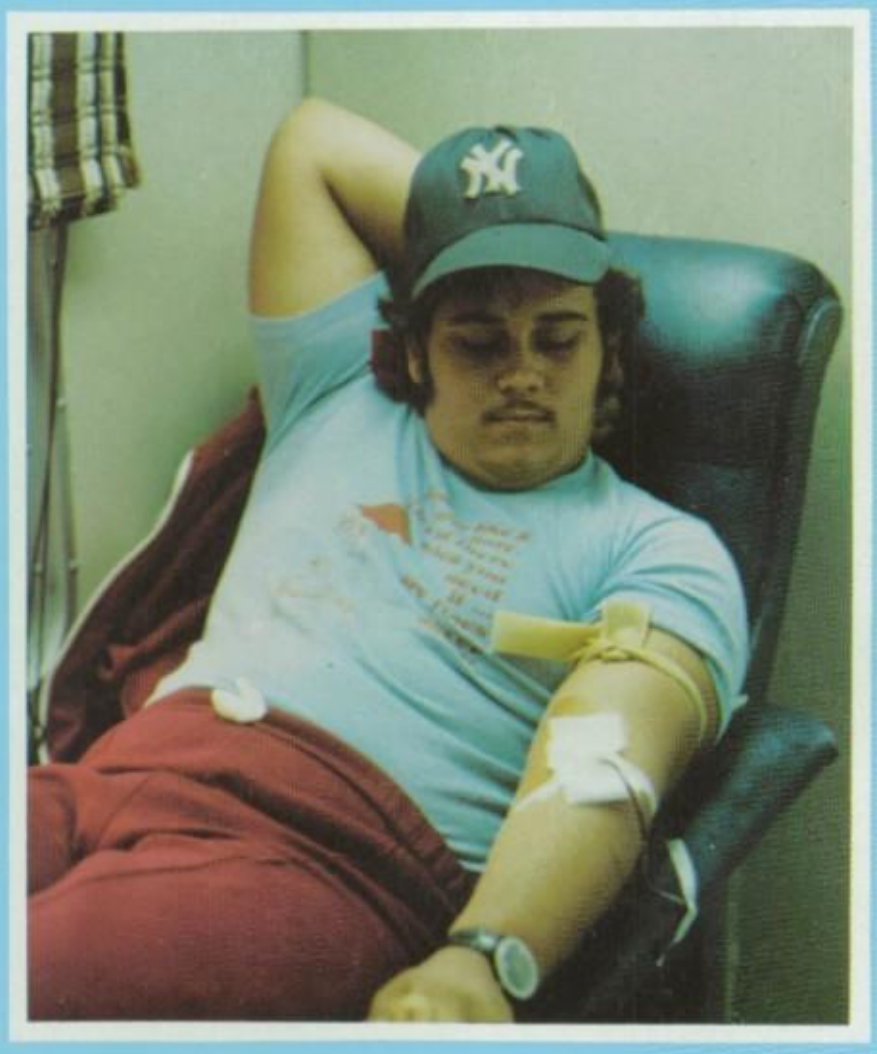
WE MADE IT HAPPEN!



Laurie helps organize student government activities

Jr. FFA officers oversee their busy meetings

Everything that happened at Santa Fe High School in 1983, we did it!!

Student Government acted as the hub of activities planning things from dressup days to organizing Homecoming festivities.

Clubs played a big part in the happenings around campus. With the addition of Jayteens many students were recognized for their academic accomplishments. A record number of people were tapped into Beta this year, expressing a need for superior grades among students. All clubs added to the enthusiasm of Raider Pride by selling Spiritchiefs.

As always, the Cheerleaders were the spirit builders. On game days a cheerleader was always in sight selling ribbons, often dressed in some unusual fashion. Their tantamount task came at pep rallies and games promoting that pep and pride.

Hardly a week went by when a club was not selling or promoting something! A new sidewalk and activities area was designed to meet many student needs: a place to sell anything, a place to eat, and a place to just goof off in our spare time.

With everything going on, it was obvious WE MADE IT HAPPEN.

IT HAPPENED THIS YEAR

The whole world hung in suspended animation as they awaited the birth of Englands second heir to the throne. Finally on June 21, 1982 the "Fairy Tale Princess" Lady Diana gave birth to a son who was later named William Arthur Philip Louis. Her insistance to have this heir to the throne of England in a hospital rather than in Buckingham Palace broke a tradition of hundreds of years.

England had her joys with the birth of a new heir but she also had her sorrows as Argentina captured the England owned Falkland Islands. England was forced to direct troops to that area to protect their rights and defend the land against invasion. A victory was finally realized on July 12, 1982.

Has a year gone by that an assassination doesn't occur somewhere in the world? Last year Sadat and Lennon were gunned down. This year the leader of Lebanon was killed and an attempt was made on our own President's life by a sick, frustrated young John Hinckley trying to gain the attention of a young woman, Jodi Foster who he had never even met.

Women have come a long way since that one giant step for mankind. They do not intend to be left out or behind in the conquest of the universe!!! Dr. Sally Ride was scheduled to become the 1st American woman in space as a crew member on the seventh flight of the NASA space shuttle.

Alexander Haig, thought to be the one and only man for the job, proved himself dispensable when on June 25, 1982 he resigned as Secretary of State.

STUDENT LIFE

Students live it up!!

To students school is not all books, homework and tests. It means having fun with friends, talking and just horsing around. This year we did away with the Parrish Plan and went back to the old schedule. This meant shorter classes and a LONGER LUNCH! This extra time to eat with some time left over to just enjoy Student Life.

RAIDER SPIRIT—IN ACTION!

"S-PI-RIT it's great to see you've got it—that SPIRIT!" This familiar chant certainly applies to Santa Fe High School this year.

It was evident that the Raiders had "that spirit" in every aspect of campus life. From spirit days to pep rallies Raider spirit abounded everywhere.

Raiders really got fired up and had a lot of fun on the many spirit days which were featured during Homecoming and other times during the year. They ranged from Hippie Day to Punk Rock Day to the Red and Grey Days before each game.

The excitement of game time can not be forgotten. For it culminated the weeks and gave each Raider a chance to express their pride and show "that Raider Spirit."

The cheerleaders and the band were instrumental in keeping spirit at a peak.

Besides selling ribbons and making loads of spirit posters, the cheerleaders presence at each game kept the crowd lively and gave the players incentive to win.

The Raider Marching Band of Pride grew larger this year due to the addition of a Drill Team and more student participation. The band brought a beat to the cheers and entertained the crowd at half time.

We Made It Happen! Everyone was involved in at least one extracurricular activity whether it was a club, the band, athletics, or even attending the games. This year the student body of Santa Fe really showed their Raider Spirit!

ROCKY III

What does everyone do in their spare time? GO TO MOVIES! More and more movies have been made with a young audience in mind. There were so many movies to see this year that some people saw two or three a day.

E.T. and Star Trek II spawned all kinds of commercial activity. You couldn't go into any store without seeing something related to these movies.

So the Yearbook Staff decided to do a survey to determine the year's BEST.

1. E.T.—E.T. got lost but found his way to the number one spot on our survey. Students loved E.T. because, "It was all kinds of movies in one."
2. Rocky III—Rocky fought his way to the big two spot because, "It had a lot of action."
3. Star Trek II—Star Trek warped to the number three spot on the survey because students liked the idea of the movie carrying on the legacy of the hit T.V. show.
4. Poltergiest—Poltergeist scared its way to the number four spot. Students liked this movie because, "It was really gory."
5. Tron—Tron programmed itself to the number five spot. For the reason of it being something new and different.

FRIDAY'S!

T.G.I.F.—Thank goodness it's Friday! Smiling faces were always noticeable towards the end of the week, especially on Friday. Thinking of our plans for the weekend and knowing we had two days relief naturally brought a smile.

Everything happened on Fridays! Pep Rallies broke the monotony of the long week and aroused everyone's spirits for the game later that night.

When the bell rang at 2:30, the Santa Fe student body was transformed from studious academians to wild and uncontrolable spirit raisers.

They raced to the parking lot to get in their cars or find their bus so they could be on their way home to begin the weekend celebration!

Guess what their plans are for the weekend?

We made it happen with PRIDE! Through the week of November 15-19 Student Government sponosred a Pride Week, headed by Rita Hart. Pride Week was born to boost school and self pride by encouraging activities and projects.

An assembly kicked off the week's bustle telling the student body what Pride Week really was. Throughout the week there were dress-up days and there was a Friend Appreciation Day. Clubs formed work projects to improve the out-look of the school. The Ag department built a sidewalk between F and B wings where a dirt path used to be. D.C.T. planted plants and Beta painted benches; each class decorated a wing with signs and everyone cleaned out their lockers on Wednesday.

The week of pride ended with a pep rally to boost the spirit of the football team.

A "RAIDER POWER" RALLY

"At homecoming hour with Raider Power the bulldogs will turn to pups", was the slogan for the theme of most of the skits for Santa Fe's annual Raider Rally.

Coming in for first place was the Varsity Cheerleaders in the "Blades of Grass" skit; second place was presented to the Senior Class for Homecoming II; and the French Club took third place in their rewritten skit, a take off of "Mr. Rodgers."

The success of Raider Rally can be attributed to several groups: First in line is the student government who worked very hard organizing the whole production and especially their sponsor Laura Blackmon and emcees for the night Kena Barker and Joan Levins. Secondly, to the various clubs who participated with skits. Last but not least the ever enthusiastic cheerleaders who provided skits and fillers as well as spirit evoking cheers.

The program came to a close with the introduction of the Varsity Football players and a pep rally led by the cheerleaders. The grand finale, of course was the presentation of the Homecoming Court.

PARTICIPATION AND PRIDE

Top: D.C.T.'s first place float.
Bottom: Kena gives Lacey a shot where it counts.

The success of Homecoming week was a result of the hard work put forth by various groups.

Student government did their part by getting students involved at school by planning dress-up days all through the week.

The clubs had an even greater task, preparing the floats for the annual parade. Most of the clubs chose to work on their floats in High Springs; as a result many afternoon and late night visits were spent at the warehouses.

This year the parade was in Alachua and after an eight mile trip down 441, many last minute repairs had to be made to the wind beaten floats. But by the time the community had their chance to view the parade, it was nothing short of spectacular!

In float competition 1st place went to D.C.T., 2nd place: FFA, 3rd: Spanish Club.

The Raider parade added to the excitement of the '82 homecoming festivities.

HOMECOMING '82

As Homecoming '82 neared, the first true signs of the festivities was the announcement of the court attendents and Miss Raider.

This year, sisters Christie and Beth Hancock were voted Miss Freshman and Miss Sophomore respectively; Miss Karen Kirby was the unanimous choice of the Junior Class, and the football team saw fit to select Sheree Harmon as Miss Raider.

SENIOR COURT 1982

Chattering teeth, frazzled nerves and a glow of excitement would well describe the five senior girls who were chosen by their classmates to represent them in the Senior Homecoming Court.

The frantic week kept the girls busy getting their gowns, escorts and parade apparel ready. All the hectic preparation suddenly turned into fulfillment as they made their traditional procession around the football field as a spirited and supportive crowd of students, family and alumni cheered them on.

The suspence continued to mount and finally climaxed at half time with the announcemnt and coronation of Miss Scarlett Cain as the 1982 Homecomign Queen by Miss Beverly Spencer, Homecoming Queen for 1981.

Miss Cain was escorted by Jay Thomas. Her court consisted of April Chastain escorted by Greg Harris, Suzette Hadley escorted by Richard Brown, Alice Smith escorted by Larry Cannady and Terri Witt escorted by Ken Skinner.

PEOPLE

Santa Fe would be nothing without its students! No two people were exactly alike. Through school work and extra activities a student developed his own personality.

The student body thrived on a single phrase . . . "Raider Pride". From the time students arrived at school in the morning until the fun and horseplay at lunch, a unique bond and togetherness was obvious among students.

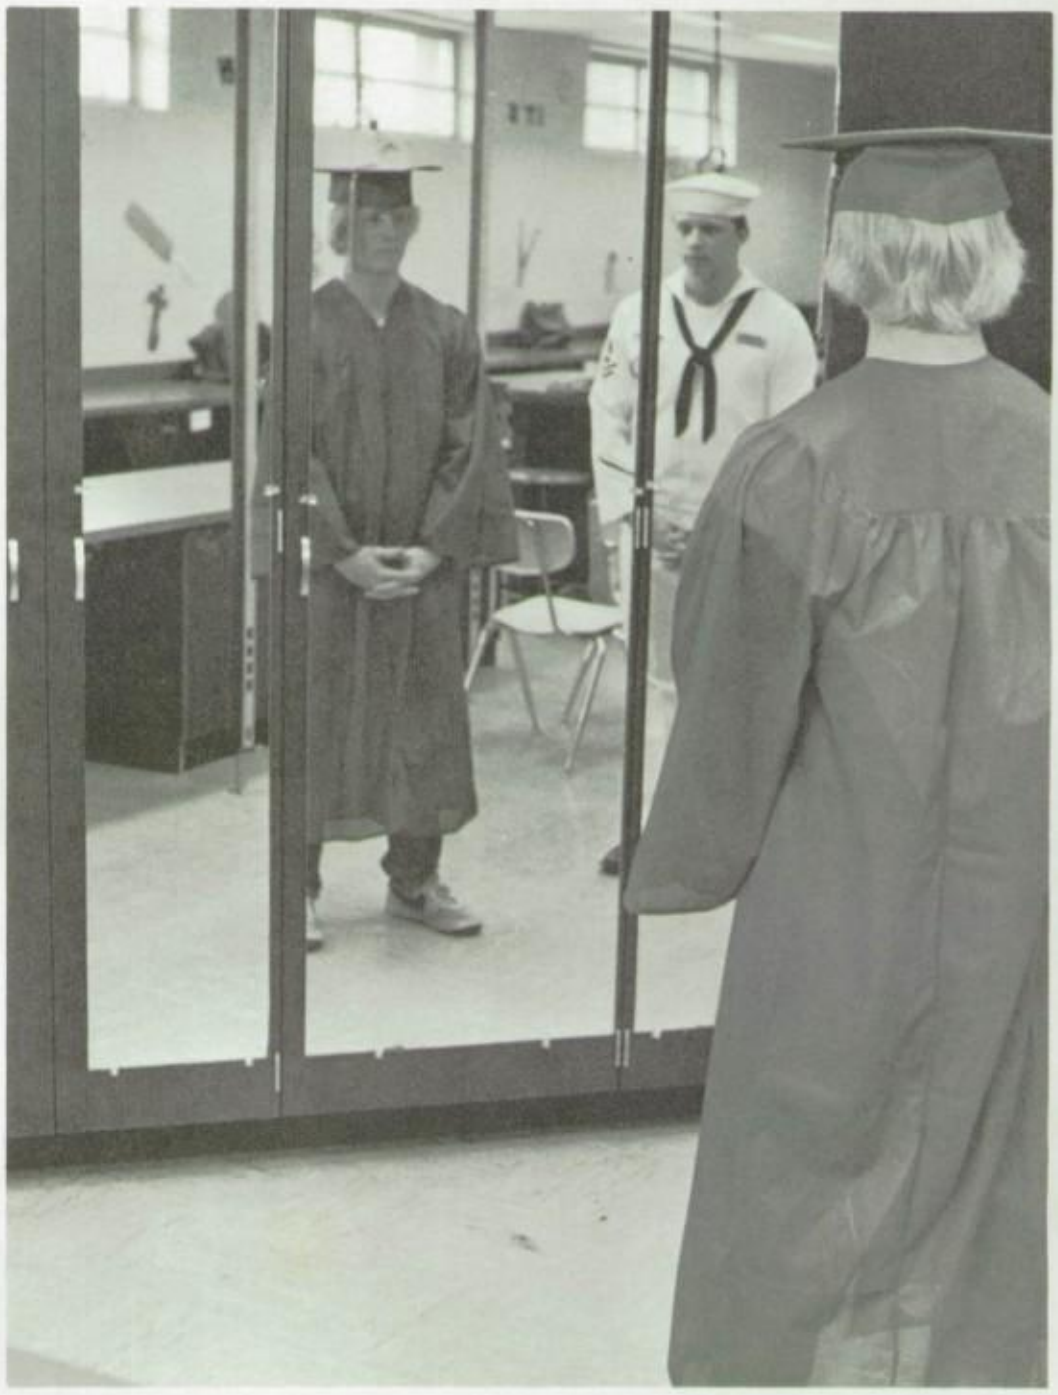
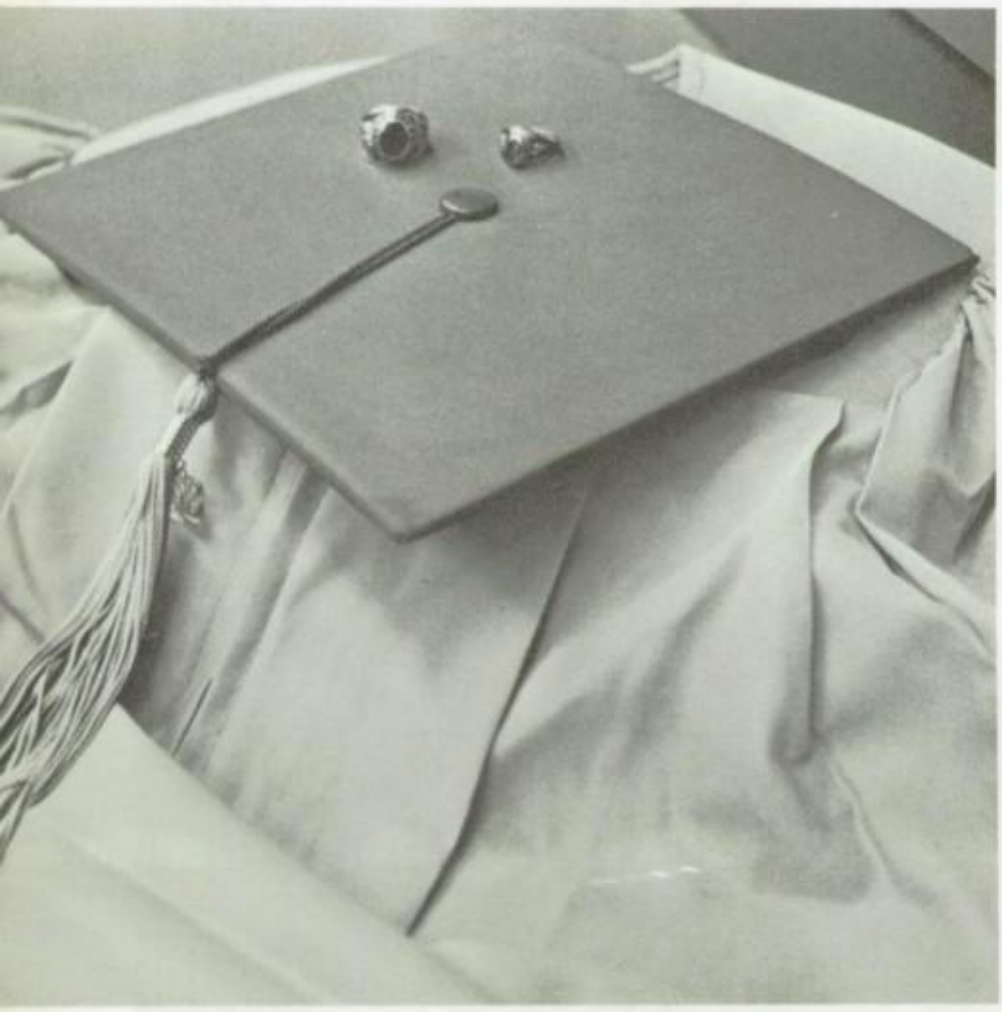
THE BEST OF TIMES!

A DIPLOMA . . . the ultimate certificate of learning. Once this piece of parchment was placed in our hands, we began recollecting and reflecting.

GRAD NITE that seemed so far at the beginning of the year is now over except for the memories captured in photos taken. The fabulous all-prepared Senior prom is also behind us. Our dreaded college tests turned out to be not so when lots of seniors were accepted to the college of their choice. Even the biggest event of the year, the senior trip, is over with only our minds holding the excitement and adventures we endeavored. Yes, only the mind holds the time we spent being the class of 1983.

The things we now face will change our lifestyles entirely. Climbing Mount Everest or kayaking down a raging river would not be as challenging as the decisions that we now encounter, but believing it means achieving it and dreaming it means being it, so with this we say LOOK OUT MT. EVEREST!





GRADUATION DAY

Today we'll start a new life, and we'll say our last goodbyes
to all the friends we've grown to love with whom we laughed and cried.
Remembering the sun and laughter,
the problems and the fears,
and watching all our memories grow
throughout our high school years.
The memories of the dances and the new friends that we've met.
Vacations, teachers, talking,
ad the exams we'd rather forget.
Yes, high school days are precious but brief,
When all your dreams come true;
It is not the end, but the beginning of a life we'll start anew.

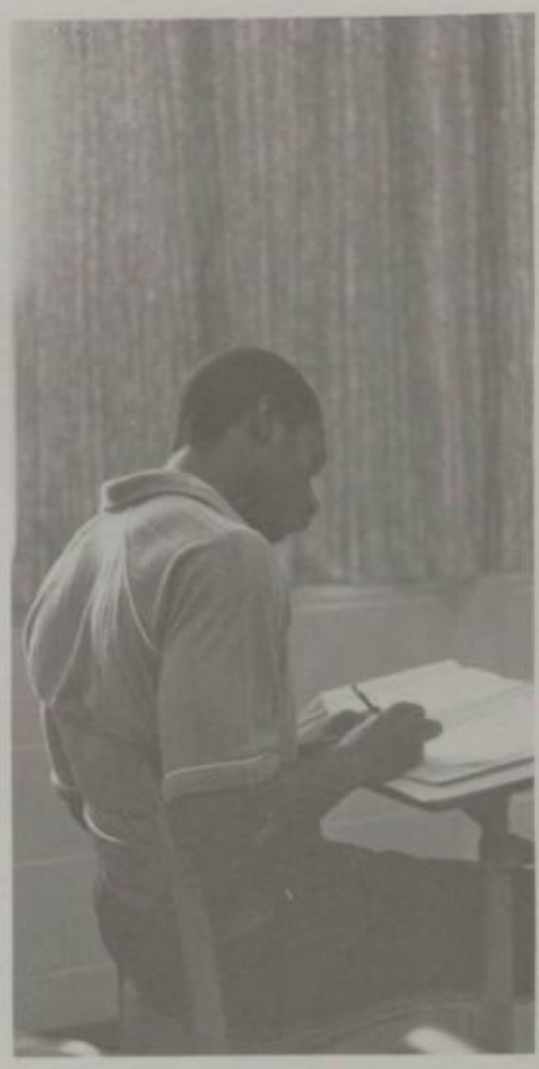
SENIORS AT WORK! CAN YOU BELIEVE IT?

Darryl Green shows Kevin Hayes his dream home.



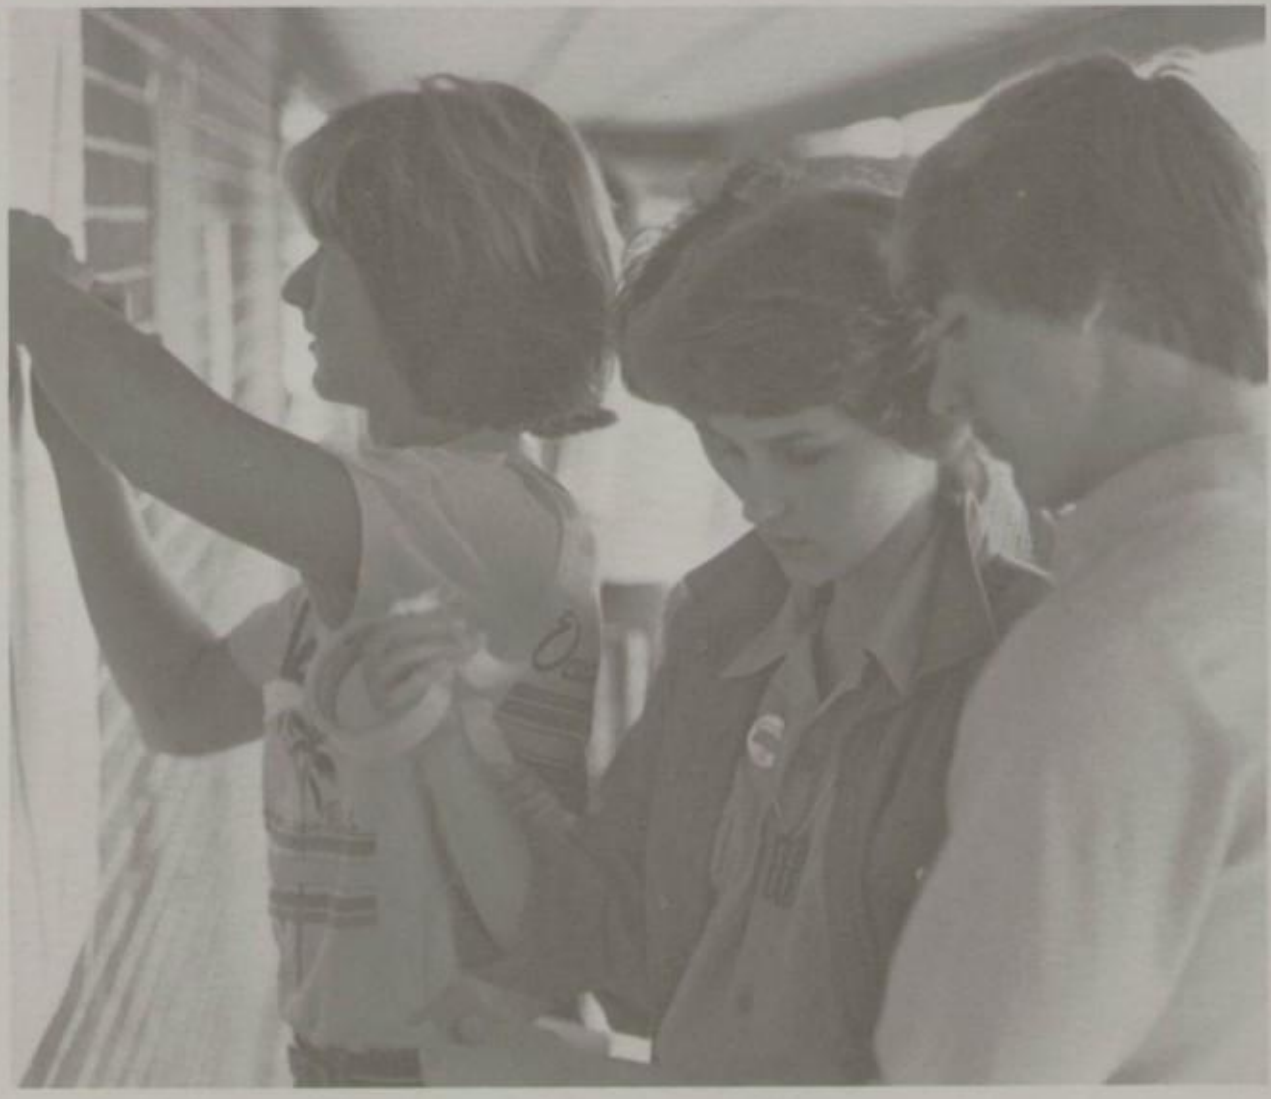
Burton Parker, Doing Algebra?

SENIORS WORKING? Well, it might or might not have been a rare sight—it all depended on when you were watching.

First semester you saw seniors in class all day diligently working for those credits, which was almost a miracle when you consider just to listen was a chore due to senioritis.

Second semester, a definite change from first because once those credits were in it was bye-bye seniors. Seniors all over campus took lighter loads. They attended half a day, not at all, or they chose to stay all day with their classes consisting of 2 or 3 academics and the rest electives.

Class of '83 a working class? Well maybe who knows? . . . It's POSSIBLE!



Promoting school spirit is work for seniors.

THE TRUE SIDE OF '83 IS REVEALED.

Jay thinks that, "Nobody does it better!"

SENIORS HAVE PERSONALITY PLUS!!!

The graduating class of "1983": a most unique group of individuals with personality, plus a whole lot more!!

This was our year, this was the year we proved ourselves to everyone. We were all different, of course, but if you took a close look we were united as one.

As seniors we were perhaps a stubborn group; never hesitating to speak our minds, but at the same time not blind to change. We stood up for what we believed in . . . mainly ourselves. Yes, we could be seniors while still having fun, and we didn't care any less just because we displayed a care-free attitude.

The senior class had our dreams of the future; now we are the future. Wth our personalities and many desires we will live forever as one.

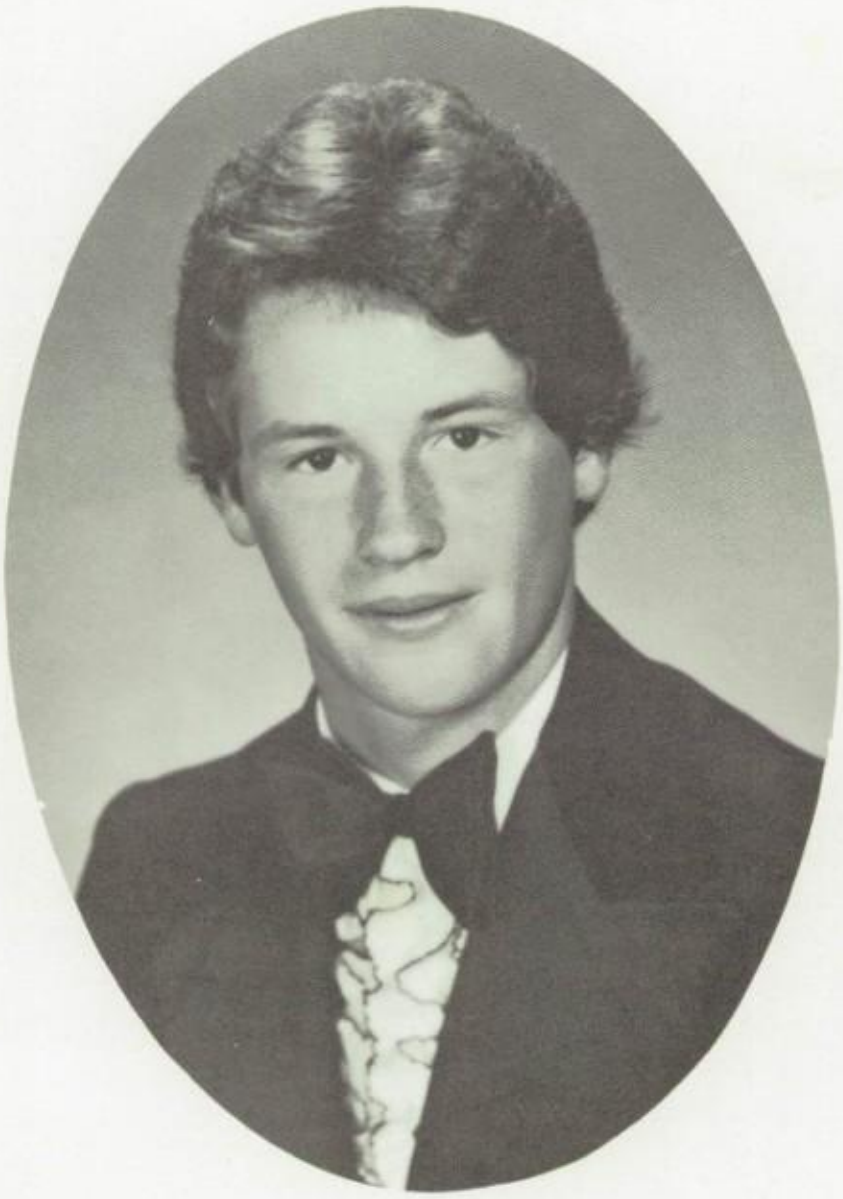
FOR YOUR SPECIAL SENIOR!!!

senior of '83- [1] a student of high ranking or status, [2] a person who parties a great amount EXAMPLE: "Hey dude, lets party!", [3] an individual always complaining about homework, [4] a caring, affectionate person, [5] a person who suffers from six hour sicknesses on warm, sunny Fridays, [6] a laid back type of person, [7] one whose favorite outfit is a pair of tennis shoes, worn Levi's, and a T-shirt displaying a music group, [8] a person with CLASS!

IN MEMORY



The 1983 Raider Staff would like to dedicate this yearbook in memory of Arthur Prescott Spencer III.

For all of us who knew Scott or spent any time with him, each and every minute was a joy. Scott was such a special friend to so many people; his death on Oct. 3, 1982 was shocking news to everyone.

Scott was an active member in the F.F.A. program, F.B.L.A. club and was a member of the tennis team. During his free time he was often found at the beach, Gator games, and rock concerts.

A famous rock star once said, "We are here for a good time not a long time." How true for the senior class of '83. How much we now appreciate the life we have, and the love we share.

If Scott only knew the effect he has had on the lives of those he left behind. We are closer, we are more careful. We have all taken a good look at our values and what is important to us.

He will be thought of in his friend's hearts, during the good times, everytime we cry, and at the graduation he would have attended.

We may have lost the friend, but the spirit of his friendship will last forever within us.

JUNIORS . . . STEPPING UP IN STYLE

Being a Junior meant a lot of things had to be done throughout the year. First, new officers had to be picked. The Junior officers were: President Laurie McNeil, V. President Karen Kirby, Secretary Rita Hart, Treasurer Denna Harrell and Prom chairperson Tracey Burnett.

Second, our new Miss Junior was Karen Kirby. Chuck Willis proudly escorted her on Homecoming night.

Another thing Juniors had to do was to take the many required tests. the PSAT, SSAT, and the ASVAB were examples of tests many Juniors plowed through. And last, Juniors were also allowed for the first time to take the ACT College Entry Exam.

Karen Kirby enjoys being Miss Junior.

STEPPING UP

Being head of the underclassmen was really something special for the Juniors. They had many things to look forward to. Through the months of October and December class rings were the main topic. "Hey! which ring did you order?" "What color is your stone?" These were many questions that were heard on the sidewalks.

The Junior-Senior Prom was also a big event. Juniors waited for that special night when they could dress up in the best tuxedos and evening gowns. That magical moment in time is one they would never forget.

Last but not least, the day they had been waiting for: That last day of school. Minutes were counted down to seconds, until the moment arrived and they were finally SENIORS.

CLASS OF 1985

This year sophomores stepped into the middle as they shook off their freshman shells. They showed their Raider Pride by being the only class to have a float in the homecoming parade and shouting their lungs out at pep rallies.

Sophomores got off to a good start this year with their new class officers and joined more clubs than they had last year as Freshmen. While Sophomores endeavored to make this year their best ever, they also anticipated that next year will be more exciting as they will be able to drive, leave campus for lunch, order class rings and be prom sponsors.

I'M LIKE FREAKIN' OUT

Like I was sitting in like my algebra class like, you know? And like the teacher like called me up to the blackboard and like actually wanted me to write on it. And like I had to use like this piece of chalk, and it like got all over my new Calvin Klein's and it was just like 'grody to the max!' And like I was so upset I like started crying, and like my mascara started running down like my face, and I was like totally embarrassed, like you know? And everybody was like freakin' out, totally!

This year at Santa Fe you heard people talking like a "valley girl". To an outsider, this kind of talking would not have made any sense. But to a "valley girl" this would have made total sense. So instead of having a totally different head, like you know, join us! Fer sure! Fer Sure!

A NEW LIFE!

The first day of school for the freshmen seemed to be a confusing one: their heads were on backwards, their papers were a mess, they didn't know which end was up. The freshmen were just not organized. Their topic of conversation consisted of, "Where's D-3?" "How long is lunch?" "I don't have time to get to my locker!"

Their joy at the end of the first week of classes was obvious.

AT THEIR BEST

The freshmen officers this year were Greg Davis, Vicki McLemore, Lacy Aubel, Lori Smith, Kim Bass, and Karen Lee. They're always on their toes; they didn't let anyone or anything go by unnoticed. They always seemed to know what they were doing.

When a freshman needed some information dealing with a school activity, all they had to do was go to any one of the freshman officers and they were able to tell you anything you needed to know. These six poeple were a great asset to the freshman class.

The Freshmen class officers: Greg Davis, Vicki McLemore, Lacy Aubel, Lori Smith, Kim Bass, and Karen Lee.

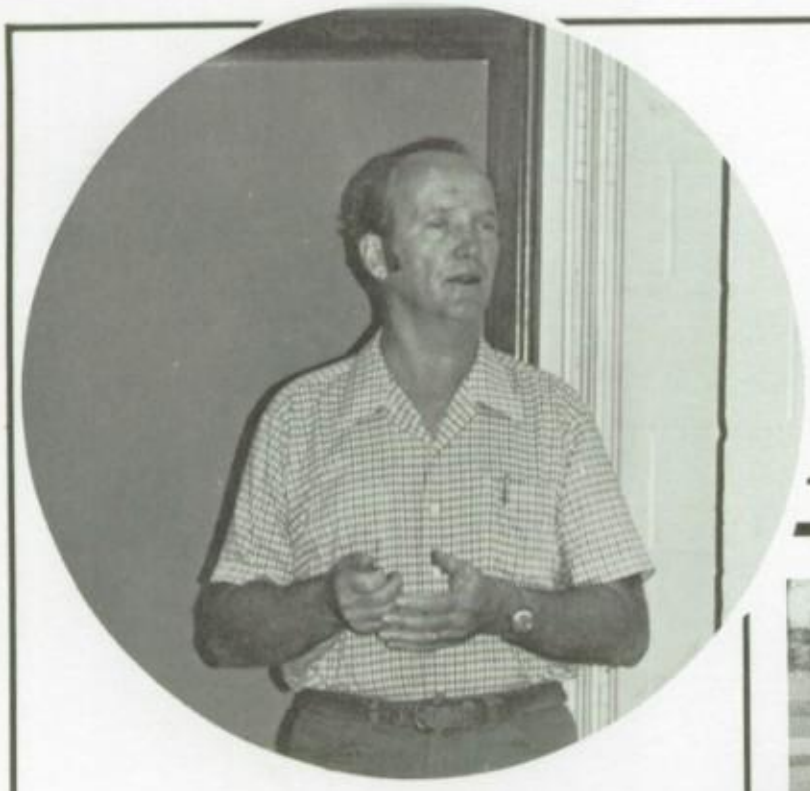
CURRICU-LUM



Academia—Curriculum—course study: Our recipe for a better life. With all the training that today's society demands, we needed what our curriculum had to offer. Just as specific ingredients must be included in order to complete any recipe, the courses at Santa Fe prepared us our future. Whether we go to college or enter the world of work, we are ready. In addition, our faculty had that little extra that made life at Santa Fe special.

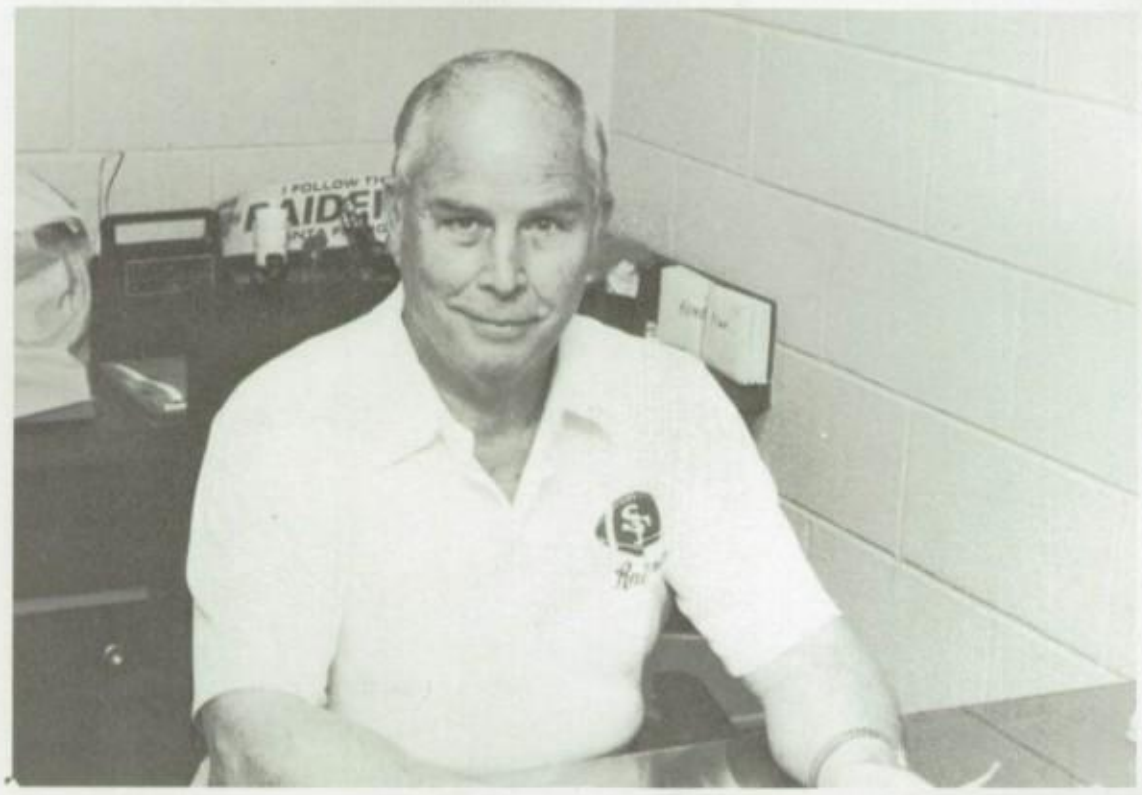
ADMINISTRATION: CAN'T COOK WITHOUT THEM.

Our administration worked hard to ensure that all students at Santa Fe High School received the best possible education for their personal development. Mr. Joyner's fourth year at Santa Fe was special in that Freshmen with whom he started are now Seniors. He has constantly supported all student activities and helped our school develop pride. His two assistant principals, Mr. Jones, head of Curriculum, and Mr. Everett, head of Administration, were just the back-up Mr. Joyner needed.



Mr. Everett awaits Friday Night's game.

Without the helpful hands of the office secretaries, Santa Fe could hardly function efficiently, perhaps not at all! Through the work of the secretaries, bookkeeper, and aide, they kept up with about 850 students and assisted the faculty with a myriad of problems. Though many of their duties go unnoticed, we could hardly do without them.

THERE TO SERVE YOU.

Where did students go when they had four classes of Ag. and only needed one? Who told you about additional classes that you needed or about assessment tests and school entry exams? Who was there to help you with daily problems that were so intense that you didn't know what to do? Student Services!

The Guidance Department was never still! Mrs. Albritton and Mrs. Robinson were always helping college bound students. Mrs. Christian worked with students on a computer (Better known as Sigi.) to combine your tests and skills in particular job fields.

Besides helping students at Santa Fe, they helped group sessions for teenagers and their parents concerning future needs.

How would we have gotten to school without our patient busdrivers? What would we have eaten if the ladies of the lunchroom decided not to cook one day? And how would we have waded through all the trash if the custodians lost their brooms?

We would have worn out our tennis shoes, eaten junk food and drown in piles of garbage. In other words, we wouldn't have a school without them.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE??

Composition and Grammar. It was really hard deciding which one you liked the least. But however hard it was, once you realized that life was impossible without communication of some sort and not all stories put you to sleep, you knew that English deserved more attention.

Nothing in our education was more important than learning to express ourselves well. Although we wrote much less often than we spoke, written Composition demanded very large amount of English time. Teachers of Composition were each given an extra planning period to grade the pile of papers that students produced.

WORLD HAPPENINGS

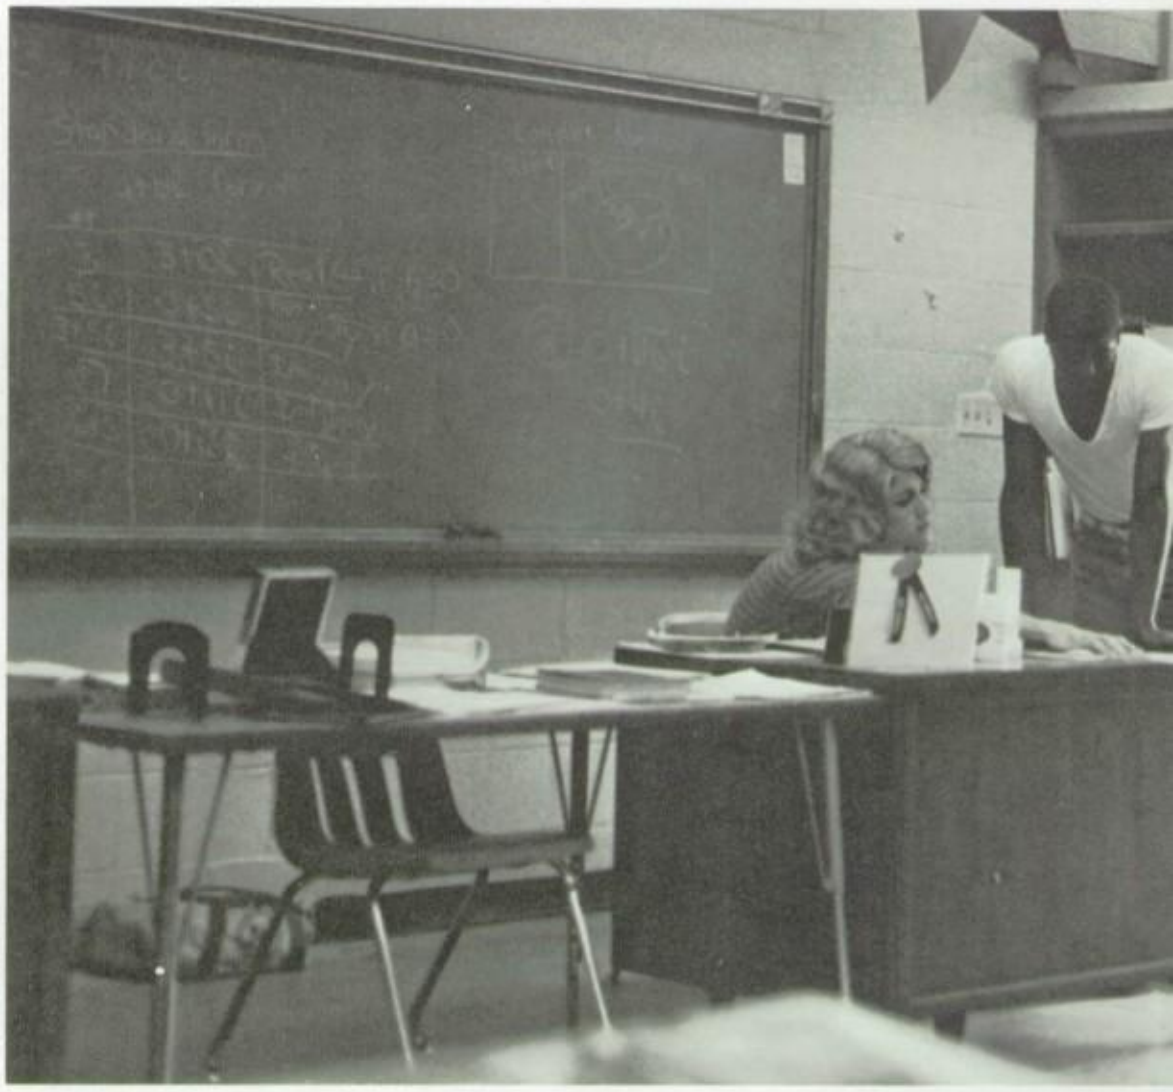
The Social Studies Department offered many courses for those who wanted to be aware of their heritage and develop an awareness of the world around them.

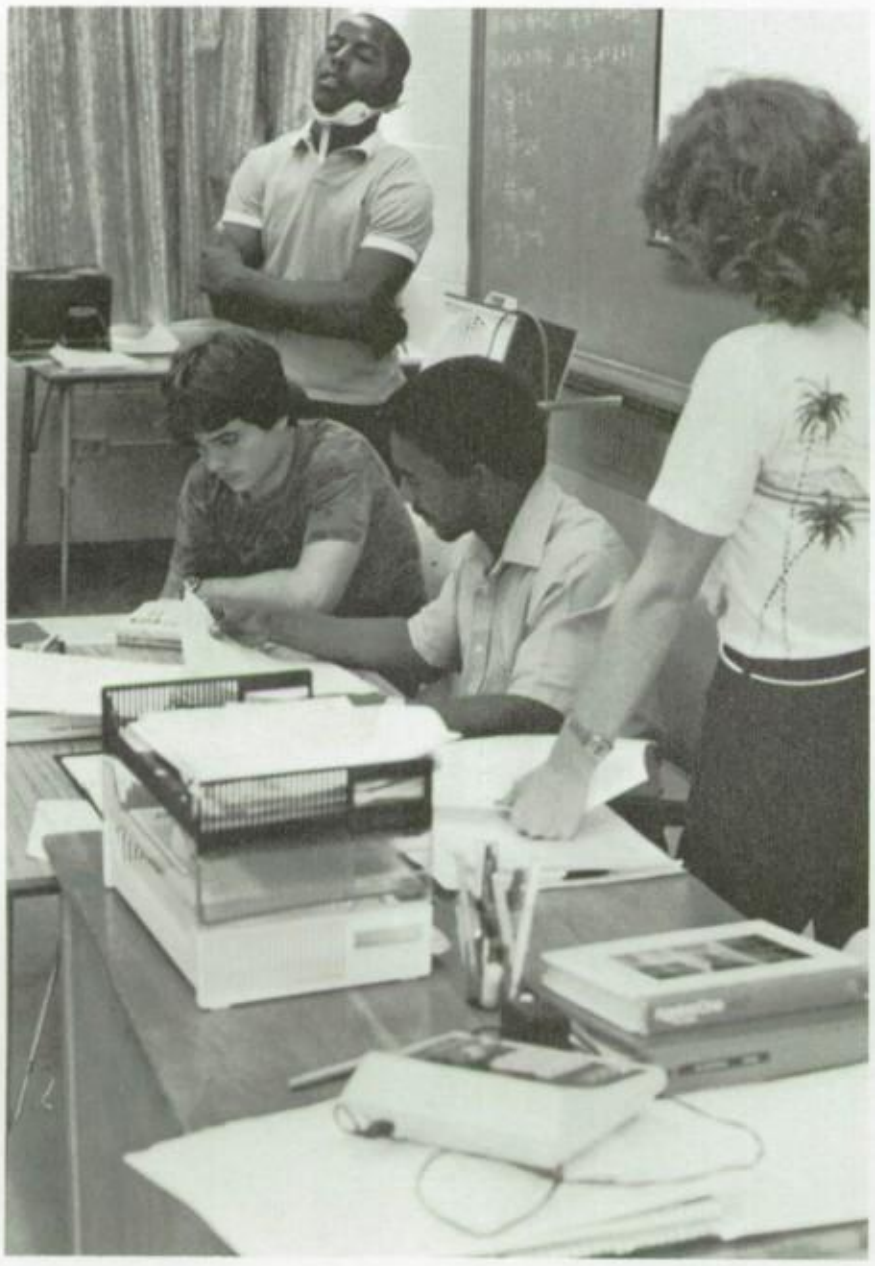
Social Studies and related subjects were required for two and a half years and we needed them. American History gave us pride in our Country, and Comparative Political Systems taught us how and why Countries are different.

MATH MATTERS

Santa Fe's Math Department covered every topic from triangles to isosceles trapezoids. A variety of courses were offered ranging from General Math to Math Analysis. The need of most every student was filled whether they were looking for Business Consumer courses or taking the pre-Algebra route.

The Math Department also offered a Math League which entered State Wide competitions six times a year. The league was voluntary for any student in Geometry, Trigonometry, Algebra 1 & 2 classes. Competition consisted of a 30 minute test of six questions. Top winners were given a Math League pin, and State ranked.





And 10 pts for your name, gives you a 15 on your final exam.

MIND OVER MATTER

Science. Our world demands more of it every day. Because of this, more students flocked into science courses than ever before. From General Science and Health to Chemistry and Physics students armed themselves for life in this technological, science-oriented world.

INTO PHYSICAL-FITNESS

Physical Education couldn't be better! Students could take classes in both individual and team sports, including archery, golf, track, volleyball, jazzercice, wrestling, basketball, and weightlifting.

Mrs. Ellard joined Santa Fe's Physical Education staff this year, giving Mrs. Shane much needed help.

DRIVERS ED

The purpose of the Driver's Education class was to teach driving techniques with simulated driving, driving on the range, and actual heavy traffic driving, all being part of the curriculum course. The students learned the importance of "seatbelts" and defensive driving. They gained knowledge through lectures, bookwork, countless films and vehicle maintenance, all under the leadership and supervision of Mr. Al Peoples.

MULTI-PURPOSES MEDIA

Books, Books, and more Books! The primary purpose of the library was functioning to service the educational media needs of the school. Mrs. Hargrave and Mrs. Diedeman filled the jobs this year with their usual efficiency: Faculty in-service training of equipment as well as scheduling film projectors, xeroxing, overhead projectors, cassette players, and video machines. And furthermore, the distribution and acquisition of books, periodicals, and magazines goes on and on.

Mrs. Diedeman shows us how to run the copy machine.

ART ADDS COLOR

The Art Department was created to offer a wider selection of electives, especially for those students who wanted to develop their artistic abilities. The main priority of the teaching program was to provide students with a successful experience without the pressure of failure. Drawing, painting, ceramics, sculpture, and photography were the main courses offered.

FUTURE FARMERS PLOW ON

The Ag Department is one that we were all proud of. Through FFA, members participate and do very well in local, state, and national competition.

Classes in everything from the Basic Principles, Crop Production, and Horticulture to Mechanics, Animal Science, Land Scaping, and Woodland Management were available. In these classes, students learned by instruction, and then they worked on special projects. For example, students who took mechanics could build anything from a horse trailor to a dog box. Students in other Ag classes grew crops and worked with all kinds of Livestock. And a special program, Ag co-op, was also offered in which students worked part-time in an Ag related field. Under the efficient leadership of Mr. Farrell, Mr. Geiger, and Mr. Evans the Agriculture Department of Santa Fe has made quite a name for itself and it was well deserved.

BUILDING A BETTER TOMORROW

The Industrial Arts Department was specifically designed for those who had the ability to do things with their hands. The equipment used in the Department was helpful in teaching the students foundry, and different methods of sheet metal processes. The students were introduced to the fundamentals of theory, measurement, Control and Application of Electrical energy, all of which are vital in preparation for the students' entrance in vocational and technical fields.

BONJOUR OR HOLA?

To improve our Foreign Language Department, classes of French 1 & 2 were offered for the second year. Also, we enjoyed the continued success of the Spanish classes 1 through 4. While the languages were being learned thoroughly, students were also learning to appreciate the cultures of the Spanish and French speaking countries. Of course, time was always spent sampling foods of the different countries.

Spanish students were given the chance to prove their talent by competing in the State Spanish Conference, held in Orlando. They left with a sense of pride an/or accomplishment in proving the strength of the Santa Fe Foreign Language Department. Under the leadership of Senora Hobbs and Mademoiselle Moore, our Foreign Language Department is growing better and enrollment increases every year.

A TASTEFUL COURSE

The Home Economics Department presented students with the fundamentals of nutrition, sewing, and child care. Ms. Freda Miller taught food and nutrition, food service and specialty foods. Specialty foods focused on cake decorating, entertaining and foreign foods.

Mrs. Donna Frankenhouser taught sewing. Students learned to operate and sew on the machines to perfection. They also picked out their own materials needed for their project.

Mrs. Gloria Randolph taught Consumer Decision making, teaching students to plan and prepare low-income meals. She also taught child-care and development, which enabled students to learn more about the growth of children.

The Exceptional Student Education program was carefully and specifically designed for those students who needed extra special help in the basic educational requirements such as reading and writing. Every once in a while classwork was set aside to look into interesting activities such as needlecraft, sewing, cooking, and the county Olympics.

Special classes were offered so that students could catch up in their studies. The department staff is very dedicated to their students, and to making Santa Fe's ESE Department the best in the state.

Individual and group counseling with students and parents helped students with problems in such areas as discipline or problems with a teacher.

PRIDE REIGNS

Go, Go Raider Band, we have pride. This was the theme for the Raider Marching Band of Pride and marched is what they did at the District 5 Florida Band Master Contest at Florida Field, receiving an excellent in playing and a superior in inspection. Then traveling on to Jacksonville for the Northeastern Marching Contest, they placed six out of fifteen. Although contests took up most of their playing time, the "Band of Pride" highly entertained the crowds at football games and pep rallies. Topping off their marching season was the annual Chirstmas concert which set the Holiday Spirit and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

This may have marked Mark E. Hudson's second year, but for the Raider Band it was a first of many great years to come.

IF IT IS TO BE, IT IS UP TO ME

Student Government became an elective last year starting a new tradition, meeting each day during fourth period. The class provided more opportunities to organize and prepare for student activities and proved to be very successful.

Raider Rally, the largest pep rally at Santa Fe, provided the funds needed for other activities throughout the year. They were also in charge of all Homecoming festivities, including the annual parade in Alachua and High Springs. Student Government planned Appreciation Days for teachers, Seniors and underclass people. They organized the annual talent show, the largest event in the second half of the year.

Enthusiasm and professionalism were the keywords that made Student Government and all their activities throughout the year a success.

WE MADE

Without the dedicated work and extra efforts put in by this year's yearbook and newspaper staff, the memories of our 1982-1983 school year would have been lost to us all. The staff, under the direction of Ms. Patti Street, captured the feeling of the school as a whole, from the sports' scene to the club life, and from curriculum to special moments. New and interesting copy was written about pictures carefully selected from what seemed like millions. The clicking of the typewriters, the quickened heartbeat of those rushing to meet their deadlines, and the frustrated screams of those whose work mysteriously disappeared could be heard throughout the year.

The journalism class spent time dealing with the community as well as the school. Ads were sold, surveys were taken, and the staff often had to display leadership in herding the school together for pictures. A large percentage of the staff was new and began the year with absolutely no knowledge of how to put together a yearbook or a newspaper. With a little help from veteran staff members, and the co-editors, and Ms. Street, they were old pros by the time the year got underway.

Together, the newspaper, with the controversial issues and current stories, and the yearbook allow the memories of 1982-83 to go on forever.

CLUBS

All Santa Fe students had the pathway best suited for them by becoming a member of one of the many clubs.

For almost all members, long hard hours were necessary to prove their efforts a success. Every minute of every hour counted as they worked for points in respective clubs. From fund raising events to Homecoming to convention our clubs were in the midst of all activities.

As the year 1982-83 came to a close, there were only pleasant memories of club related activities. All those hours had to pay off, and that gratifying feeling of service to Santa Fe High and the community were ever present.

BETA CLUB: BIGGER & BETTER

Starting the year bigger and better was of definite importance to this year's Beta Club. They did so by initiating 39 new members during a candle light ceremony last November.

The club participated in the annual Raider Homecoming Parade and in Pride Week. Beta members showed their Pride by painting the benches around the school

Also, during the Christmas Holidays several Beta members went to a convalescent home and distributed goods among the elderly.

Under the leadership of Mrs. McGraw, the club once again presented a Creative Arts Night in February. This demonstrated the talents of individuals and organizations around the school.

In the spring, Beta Club joined forces with Student Goverment to present the 2nd annual Raider Field Day.

To raise money for the Laura Galbraith Scholarship Fund, the club sold spirit chiefs. This scholarship was given to one or two deserving seniors.

The Beta Club members ended the year in style by having an Installation ceremony for next year's officers.

In March students in the club attended a District Leadership Conference. There they competed in events, such as, typing and shorthand.

CLUB DE ESPANOL

This year the 1982-1983 Spanish Club has held numerous fund raising activities. They sold candles and candy, and participated in Rider Rally. The Spanish Club also took 3rd place with their homecoming float. They held an initiation banquet for new club members. The club members enjoyed a day in St. Augustine in March. For the first time the members of Spanish Club got club t-shirts. The Spanish Club is growing larger and is encountering new experiences daily.

THE FRENCH CLUB

The French Club Officers:

The French Club, with one year's experience behind them, steadily became more involved in school activities. This was proven by their entertaining skit which won 3rd place at the Raider Rally. They had a float in the homecoming parade, which club members spent a lot of hard work on. French Club members sold doughnuts, and with the money earned they bought club t-shirts. An initiation banquet was held in November, and these affairs helped them to get to know and understand each other better.

WORKING 9 to 5

The Santa Fe Department of the Cooperative Education Club of Florida consisted of students, employers, and the CECF supervisor, Mrs. Wanda Carter, all working together with the goal of preparing interest ed juniors and seniors for the working world. Students learned and made money through work in a variety of different fields. Mrs. Carter also helped students out in finding a desired job in which they were paid and acquired their necessary high school credits.

TAKE 2!

In the past years, the Drama Club at Santa Fe has paayed behind the scenes, as the club was just beginning to attract interest and needed time to grow. This past years Drama Club really began to get into the public eye. They performed several plays during pride week, in Raider Rally, and on creative arts night. Under the direction of Mrs. Stephanie McGraw they raised money and kept the action rolling.

F.H.A.

The goal of this year's Future Homemakers of America was to gain the ability to lead in the home as well as in the community. Participation in school activities was high even though the club was small. They displayed their spirit and pride during homecoming and Pride Week. Under the leadership of Ms. Miller, the Future Homemakers of America acquired the knowledge and ability that they began the year in hopes of finding.

FUTURE FARMERS DO

After selecting new officers at the end of last school year, the F.F.A. immediately began planning for 1982-83. To kick off the year, Pres. April Chestain and V. Pres. Matt Harrell attended the Washington Conference Program in Washington, D.C. Here they learned tips on leadership, planning and other areas which have helped make a Gold Emblem Chapter. Both Jr. & Sr. chapter officers attended the District Leadership School.

The Future Farmers do more than farm. In October they sponsored a Rodeo to raise money for the Leadership Training Center. The center is to be built out from Lakeland for the use of all F.F.A. chapters in Fla. The members also participated in Pride Week by putting their skills to work and constructing a much needed sidewalk. Also, the chapter's held the second annual State-wide Fiddlers' contest.

Although the Jr. & Sr. Chapter's are seperate, by working together they have made both chapters top in the state. At their banquet in May this was shown by the numerous awards received.

Jayteens is an active service club new to Santa Fe High School this year, and is sponsored by the Jaycees.

The Jayteens were involved in many activities this year including a float and skit for homecoming, selling cookies to raise money and visiting a nursing home and several nursery schools during the holiday season. At the nursing home Jayteens walked in procession through the halls singing Christmas carols and making friends. Senior Scott Barnett portrayed Santa Claus, with Krista Ables and Charisse Martovella acting as Santa's elves.

At the nursery schools, the Jayteens sang Christmas Carols with Santa ad his elves passing out gifts to the children

As another fund raiser, the Jayteens held a car wash. Patrons of the car wash were teachers and residents of the community. Climaxing all of this hard work was a water fight, enjoyed by all.

Here we see that not only are Jayteens an active service organization, but fun loving as well.

SPORTS

The desire for self-motivation was a recurrent motif of the Raiders for enduring long hours of practice, injuries, and disappointing defeats. Athletes experienced a natural high by putting forth their all.

As the 1982-83 season came to a close, so did competition in the 3A division. Next year all athletics will move to the 2A rank. With this in mind it encouraged the athletes to excel in their respective sport.

The sports may vary, but for the Raiders, the goal remains the same. They strive for perfection.

Concentration is a big part of the game!

Inexperience was the major setback in the Raiders' 5-5 season. However, the teams attitude was kept up by the leadership of Dornale Young and Sherman Young. Losing only six seniors, next year should prove to be promising because of the experience gained by the underclassmen.

During the season the defense held Newberry (6-0), who made it to the State semi-finals, and Live Oak (42-0), a tough district opponent for the only two shut-outs of the season. Throughout the season the strong defense held State recognized offenses. Leading rusher for the Raiders was senior Cary Lumpkin. He carried the ball 117 times for a total of 511 yards. Lumpkin had an average of 4.7 yards every time he was handed the ball, and he ended the season with eight touchdowns. Another senior Burt Parker averaged 15.6 yards per catch, gaining 358 yards on 23 receptions. Burt also totaled eight touchdowns.

Congratulations are in store for the Most Valuable Players for the 1982 Varsity season. These players were chosen by the Coaches for their outstanding performance. Ending the 3-A era, the Raiders look forward to making themselves known in the 2-A division. It has been 6 years since the Raiders have competed against the strong 2-A teams. However, the Raiders feel it would be to their advantage to move down. Good luck in 2-A competition in 1983!

SPARKLE AND SHINE!

Captains can't decide on a slogan for the new Raider Pride sandwich.

Throughout the year many fans view high school sports. However, one sport which is not individually recognized is cheerleading. Cheerleaders have the longest season out of all the other sports. Try-outs are over by the end of April and their season is over in February, so there is only one month out of the school year when they are not perfecting their performance.

As soon as the squad is selected practice begins for camp. This year's camp was on the campus of Mercer University in Macon, Ga. During the week they were awarded spirit awards and ribbons. At the end of the long week the squad had collected 4 blue and 2 red ribbons from daily competition. On the final day the big "V's" were selected to district finals and came in 1st runner up. Unlike in years past, both Varsity and J.V. went to camp together. As one said, "It helps to see familiar faces when you're competing, and with both squads giving support for the other it made it a lot more fun."

Cheerleaders had a constant job in keeping school spirit going, whether it was when the team was on a winning streak or when we were losing a close one to an old time rival. They were there no matter what!

With only 3 Juniors and 6 Seniors it made the year even more special as the majority realized it would be the last time they would travel down this beaten but yet unbeaten path. As one Senior put it, "When the last second ticks down and a tear rolls down our cheek, it is not for sorrow but only that we will miss what has come to be a big part in our heart . . . cheering!"

J.V. PROVE TO BE PERFECT!

The J.V. football team tallied a perfect 8-0 record for the 1982 season. Quarterback Floyd Nichols led the offense by completing 48 out of 92 passes along with 15 touchdowns. A favorite target of Nichols was Darryl Jenkins who caught 12 passes for 259 yards. Leading the ground game was Ralph Mendez who totaled 508 yards on the season.

The defense also deserves much recognition; they only gave up a total of 67 points throughout the year while the offense compiled a total of 302 points.

Over the past five years Coaches Buck & Feagan have lost only 4 games. Coach Scott Rosenboom also contributed to the success of the Raiders.

Spirit comes naturally for a parade.

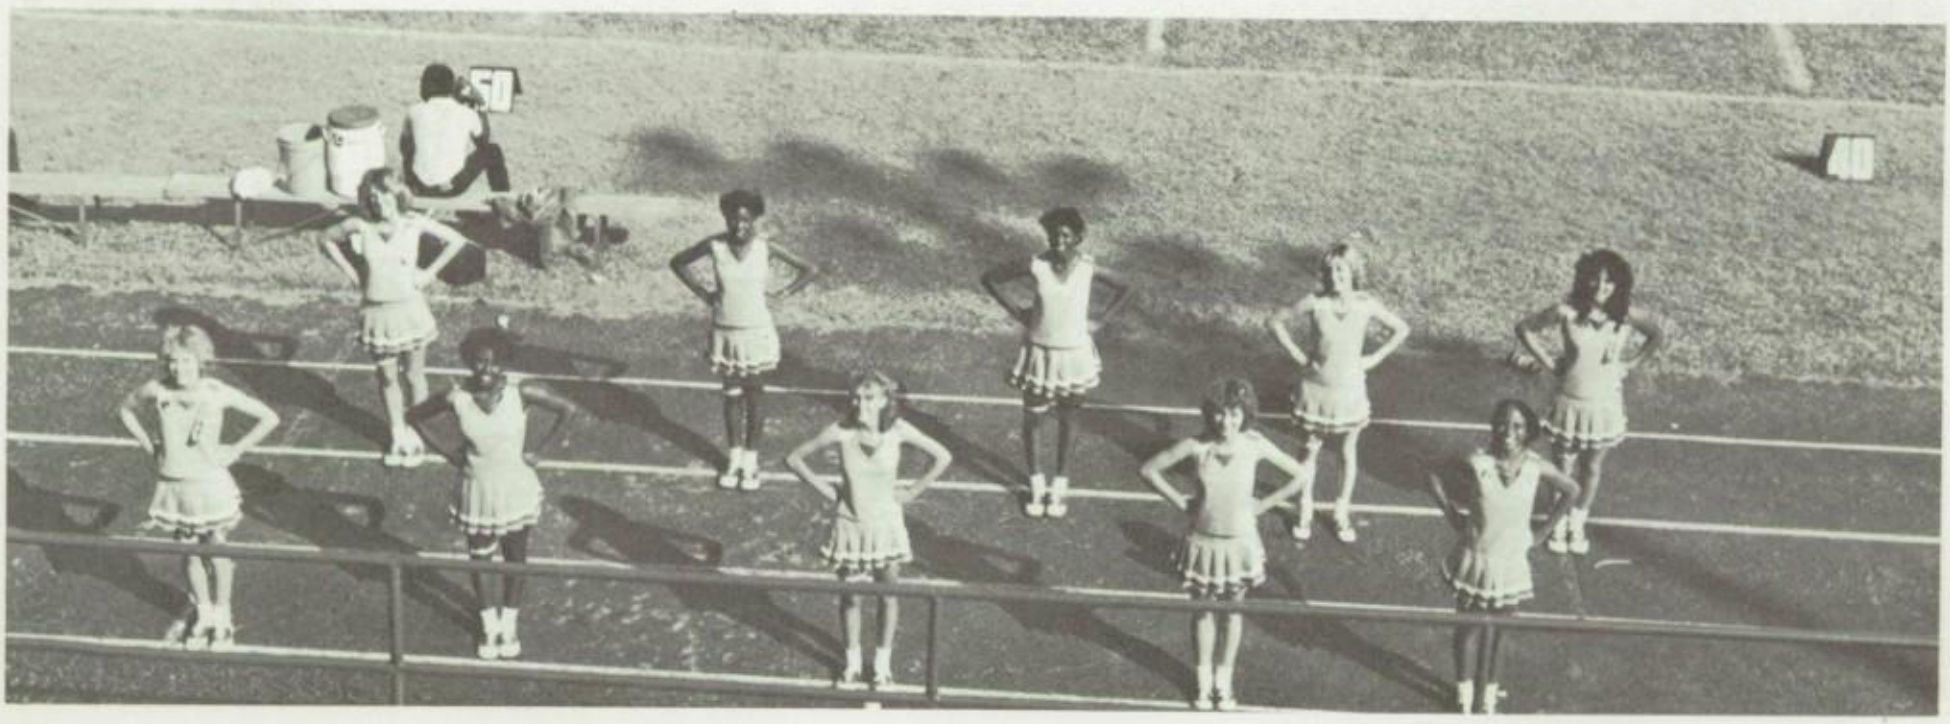
J.V. discover thinking up a skit isn't easy!

Just like the team, the J.V. cheerleaders had a spectacular year! It began by winning the camp spirit award. The undefeated team gave the squad a lot to cheer for and cheer they did.

The season started out very wet, but the cheerleaders waited it out with the team for their first victorious game. The squad picked up more spirit as the team won, won, won!

Success came with the leadership of Captain Terri Anderson and Co-Captain Beth Hancock. Displaying their pride, during Homecoming week the cheerleaders participated in Raider Rally by performing a skit and exhilarating pom-pom routine as well as cheering at the game.

The guidance from their sponsor Ms. Randolph has given the cheerleaders an awarding experience.



Waiting to show their stuff!

A DOMINATING SEASON!

Throughout the season a special friendship developed within the Lady Raiders making it easier for the players to perform their duties on the court. Plus, nine seniors who wanted their final season to be their best propelled the team to 18 regular season wins.

The girls attended two invitational tournaments in Jacksonville where they fared well. These tournaments prepared the Lady Raiders for the district tournament in which the Raiders defeated Buchholz who had upset us twice in regular season.

The Lady Raiders prove to have one of the most consistant winning records in the school. They have won the district tournament the past seven out of eight years, won the regional tournament three times, won sectionals twice and placed in the State Tournament twice.

With only four returning players, next year the team moves to 2-A competition where Coach Loretta Shane hopes to continue her success.

The team anxiously awaits the set.

J.V. SAILS TO SUCCESS

With a new coach at the bow, a chorus of exciting volleys, daring dives and breathtaking spikes, the Junior Varsity Volleyball team sailed to a 6-5 season. Ms. Wanda Carter went full steam ahead and navigated her team to victories over arch rivals Buchholz High School & Gainesville High school.

The veteran basketball coach Ms. Carter guided her team of Dawn Chandler, Amy Thomas, Misty Carlson, Mary Stalnaker, Beverly Clark, Sherry Campbell, Tresa Howard, Elizabeth Hodges, Annie Diston, Lisa Freeney, and Vicki McLemose through many tough and sometimes disappointing games.

With unparalleled speed, agility and enthusiasm, the J.V. netters made this season happen and provided the varsity team with great expectations for next year.

RUNNING THROUGH THE PAIN

The pain and misery caused by constant practice was not alien to members of the Cross Country team. Their hard hard work earned the boys' team fourth place, and awarded the Lady Raiders with the runners up place to the county title.

There have been several changes since last year. The girls' team was considerably larger, while the boys' team was much smaller than last years. Also this season was highlighted by two dynamic new coaches. Ms. K. Anguish and Ms. J. Ellard. Ms. Ellard guided the girls team of: Kira Bradner, Michelle Cockran and Brandie Jay with Juniors Kathy Shealy and Sharon Krenson, along with Mary Stalnaker as the lone Sophomore. Ms. Anguish lead the boys' team made of: Seniors Ronnie Hall, David Green, Rufus White and Brian Schmitt, with Junior Alex Washington and Freshmen manager Kelly Ham.

These team competed twice with teams that were nationally ranked, in the Deland Invitational and the University of Florida Invitational, they placed surprisingly well in both meets.

The girls coach Ms. Ellard said, "This year we have gained some respect" and all the runners worked exceptionally hard to make this season the best, and they made it happen.

VARSITY DEFINED BASKETBALL bas/kit/bal n. A game played by two teams of five players with an inflated rubber ball.

The Varsity team defined basketball in an entirely different way. They showed that skill and teamwork made the big plays and fast breaks. Our school's new basketball coach Mr. Leroy Williams had to fight the problems of inexperience and stiff competition.

Early in the season with a victory against a powerful Keystone team it looked like things were going their way, but a landslide of bad luck and an injury which caused them to lose Senior starter Burt Parker dealt them seven loses in three weeks. Although they had some rough times, the Varsity cagers showed RAIDER PRIDE out on the "hard wood" wherever they went.

Their team's high spirits and the effects of excellent coaching were evident during practice. Coach Williams said, "Even though it was tough, everybody pulled his weight".

THE J.V. CAGERS BLAST OFF

Five! The ball whistles downcourt. Four! The Raiders have it in the far corner. Three! The crowd is up on their feet. Two! The last shot has been cast. One! The ball drops silently through the net. The buzzer sounds and the score board tells the story. Once again the J.V. Raiders are victorious.

With tons of talent and ambition, they sparked their fans and sent chills up the spines of opponents. The leadership of experienced coaching and determination provided them with an excellent foundation for a winning team. Head coach Charles Thomas taught his poise under pressure and control in tight spots. The enthusiastic team did their best to make the name "RAIDERS" known throughout the county.

Since most of the seasons' players will be moved up to varsity next year, these J.V. cagers have left their mark in 1983.

LADY RAIDERS JUMP TO IT

Even though the 1982-1983 Lady Raiders were not very tall, not very experienced, and few in numbers, they never gave up. With each game they gained experience and developed more and more confidence in themselves and in their teammates. The Lady Raiders faced a very tough schedule. Six opponents were rated in the top ten state-wide poll. Despite this, the Lady Raiders managed to average 56 points per game.

Some bright spots about this young team were that six players shot at least 50% from the free throw line, the squad made less turnovers than previous years, and three players scored in double figures regularly.

Senior Joanne Terry was impressive with a 13 point average from the point guard position. Junior Barbara Washington led the team from the free throw line with a hot 14 point average per game. However, without the help of all team members, no individual could have excelled in her position.

Coach Wanda Carter explains, "Basketball is a very demanding and time consuming sport and these young athletes should be congratulated for their dedication and hard work."

SKILL AND DETERMINATION

Bounding down the court with wins over Buchholz, Eastside, and PKY, the Lady Raiders strengthened their lines. Averaging 40 points per game, the offensive line took to the court with determination to win. According to Coach Len Thomas the best offensive players were Kim Frazier, Donna Bryant, Jennifer Campbell, and Tangela Dixon. Backing up the offensive line was the vigorous defense who guarded well, blocked shots, and got the ball back for the offense.

Coach Len Thomas added, "This is the first year I have ever coached a girls basketball team, and I would like to thank the girls for all of the hard work and determination they have put into this year."

This year, led by a majority of seniors, the wrestling team finished its season with a record of 8 wins and 6 losses.

Co-captain Robert Salazar and Cary Lumpkin acted as a foundation for the wrestling team as a result of their leadership. Much enthusiasm and support was added to the 1982-83 squad.

The team proved that they could compete with tough teams like Buchholz, Palatka, and Lake City. Entering the Christmas tournament in Ocala proved to be quite a learning experience, while at the same time a winning experience. Raiders placed in the top 3 & 4 spots of the tournament.

To climax this winning season the team placed 3rd in the district, qualifying 11 out of 12 wrestlers for the regional competion. Todd Mitchell having the best record of 17 and 3 advanced to the state tournament.

TENNIS ANYONE?

Racquets, balls, nets and courts were familiar objects used in the game of tennis. Santa Fe has had strong tennis teams and this year was no exception. The athletes worked hard, trained and practiced their skills as often as possible.

Returning for the girls this year was Tarrell Shiskin, Kathy Taylor and Joan Levins, who were backed up by strong newcomers. Even though the team had to obtain a new coach in the middle of the season, they still came out on top.

With Mr. Becker's help the Varsity boys' team had their strongest season ever. Also, beginning this year was a boys' J.V. tennis team. It consisted of Silvio Cavaceppi, Julius Braga and James Skiver.

Flashy new uniforms were seen dancing on the courts. Both boys and girls received new outfits to complement their outstanding performances. All in all, this season turned out to be one of the best.

RAIDER POWER!

Under the direction of coach John Carter the Raider Lifters completed another victorious season. Carrying on that winning tradition, the Raider Lifters extended their record of excellence by winning seven more matches than last year. The Raiders Lifters defeated district foes Buchholz, Gainesville, Eastside and Starke and even went on to be county champs for the third year in a row.

The team's success was attributed to long hours of grueling workouts and unmatchable competition. The team was lead by John Davis with a bench press of 415 lbs and by Earl Randolph with a bench of 375 lbs. Let's hope they continue to be the number one team in School.

EXPERIENCE FOR JV

Practice makes Perfect!

The big item for any J.V. sport is "experience". On J.V. the players got the experience they needed and put what they had learned to good use.

Each practice prepared the team for the expected plays, as well as the unexpected ones. However, nothing is better then the real thing which was shown when they played against their first tough opponent.

Coach Anderson provided that much needed experience. This season was his second here at Santa Fe High.

BATTER UP FOR BASEBALL!

Bunting is a big part of the game.

Kevin doing what he does best.

Leadership was the key to the team's successful season. By having eleven experienced seniors, the players worked well together and worked as a team not as individuals. This contributed to their wins.

Returning players from the '82 season were infielders Huey Cain, Ricky McIntosh and Kevin Hayes. Outfielders Jeff Crews and Greg Harris. Pitchers Scott Lanier, Duane Duke, Ken Skinner and Darrell Green.

It took the knowledge of the game and the effort of each player along with support from Coaches in order to compete with confidence against school rivals.

DETERMINATION MAKES WINNERS

Thelma is ready to field the ball.

Every coach knows a team isn't built in a day. So was the case for the second year coach Len Thomas. At the start of the season he was blessed with an over abundance of players who lacked in experience.

Only two returning players were able to provide the girls with the much needed leadership.

Through hard work and grueling practices the Raiders learned the discipline that makes a winning ball team.

PRACTICE BRINGS PERFECTION

Starting practice in January the Lady Raiders got a head start on the other schools in the area which proved valuable for the district tournament.

The Raiders got help this year from Senior Nancy Turner, who transfered from Rolling Green, and Junior Jordy Blackey From Oak Hall.

Leading the way through the season defensively was Gina Willis and April Chastain, while Stacy Lanier handled things offensively.

Coach Loretta Shane said this is one of the finer teams that Santa Fe has put out. Next year the team moves to 2-A competition where Coach Shane hopes to continue her success.

Bang!, and the SFHS track team ran off with a strong starting. Outstanding runners gave their all to the team; Burt Parker, a top 10 runner in the state; Cary Lumpkin, running the mile relay split time of 51.5; Cary White, in the 120 high hurdle a 5th place regional winner; and Willie Lee in the high jump. All these members made tough opponents crumble in their Nikes. On the other side of the track, there were team members Kim Colsen dashing to state with 100 yard sprints and Lois Lingo and Rosalyn Bell making state in the 440 relay. Kira Brandner, Michelle Cochran, and Kathy Shealy dedicated members remaining from the track team ran through the rest of the year as middle distance runners. AS IT HAPPENED IN 1982-83.

As the 1982-83 school year came to a close we had the opportunity to look back and reminess: Remembering all those crazy things we did, the times we were together and also the private moments we spent alone.

Homecoming week was filled with excitement. Throughout the week various dress-up days added to the flurry of activities, and the annual Raider Rally lifted spirits for the long awaited football game.

For the first time ever Student Government imbued the student body with PRIDE. Most of the school's clubs participated in pride raising activities, doing things from adding sidewalks to cleaning the auditorium.

Clubs played a big part in school related functions. Beta, Spanish, and FFA clubs represented our school well at their respective conventions.

Being a small school in a 3A district, Santa Fe showed fiestiness and dedication in the face of tough opponents. Exhibiting that Raider Pride whether they flaunted a winning season or suffered through a heartbreaking unsuccessful one.

All the events this year were special, but none more personal than the glamorous night of PROM. This was our night to get all decked out in our formal wear, go to only the nicest places to eat then later dance the night away in the extravagent setting of the Hilton.

For seniors, the end of the year was exasperating. In May, seniors spent a night of fun and fantasy at Grad-Nite and although it was quite tiresome the frenzy of it all was well worthwhile.

Then the end of it all: graduation, the one achievement we have worked for 12 or more years to gain. The night had finally arrived. We were proud of our fine accomplishments and looked forward to a new future, but at the same time we felt somewhat sad. School had filled such an important part of our lives for so very long.

Annesia and Dee Dee share a few laughs before class.

Kathy and Denise—friends forever.
